

HISTORIC INDIA.
THE DURBAR HALL, MYSORE STATE PALACE.

Raphael Tuck &amp; Sons' "Oilette"

ART PUBLISHED TO THEIR MAJESTIES THE KING &amp; QUEEN.

Postcard No. 8972

By Appointment

The Durbar Hall, Mysore State Palace. The Palace is built in Hindu style, the front supported by four fantastically carved wooden pillars. The hall is an open gallery where the Maharaja shows himself to the people, seated on his throne. The throne was of figwood overlaid with ivory, but after the restoration of the Raja the ivory was plated with gold and silver embossed with Hindu figures.

From

Sinha, I.S., A.M.I.P.E., F.R.S.A.
INDIAN ORDNANCE DEPT.
G. C. F. Estate Jubbulpore, India.

The above is the correct address and may be substituted in place of SINHA J. J. &c.

J. J. Sinha

8-6-1933

LL9778

TUCK'S POST CARD

CARTE POSTALE

FOR AD

Mis- ~~Ad~~ Hicks.

33, Fernela Road
Balham

London, S.W. 12
(England)

CTPA 12.9